Abstract: The Partition Functions were introduced by Euler, Ramanujam found a very interesting questions on these in particular about the rate of growth of this function and congruence properties. These functions have interesting connections with theory of Modular forms we shall give an overview of the recent results on these.